

Learning Headquarters' K-6 Standards-Based Writing Inservice

K-6

This dynamic, six-hour inservice is designed to enhance writing instruction at your site. You will learn to:

- Expand background knowledge to focus on a common vision, increase writing expectations and improve writing instruction
- Promote a common language centered around research-based tools, techniques, and strategies
- Focus on standards-based writing within the big picture of an effective schoolwide system
- Implement a writing framework to ensure a cohesive system which differentiates instruction, meeting all students' needs
- Structure writing into the day to guarantee a consistent, daily writing block
- Analyze standards across grade levels to clarify and shape each grade's ownership of specified writing genres
- Build writing rigor to establish standards-based, grade-level-appropriate writing expectations
- Define the scope and sequence for teacher demonstrations to help students reach rigorous writing expectations
- Conquer grade-level writing genres through an effective sequence for instruction
- Access high-level vocabulary to bridge the language gap and improve everyday writing
- Build powerful sentences to add completeness, variety, and complexity to student compositions
- Assess grade-level genres, utilizing a monitoring system, to track progress and ensure that student data drives instruction

You will leave with a comprehensive handbook and extensive blackline masters to use immediately!
